

Nan McNamara

Director/Producer

As Director

THE NIBROC TRILOGY* by Arlene Hutton at Actors Co-op
(directed SEE ROCK CITY and LAST TRAIN TO NIBROC; produced in repertory)

Garland Award Honorable Mention - Best Director;
Nominated - 6 LA Weekly Awards (2 wins);
Critic's Choice Los Angeles Times;
Recommended LA Weekly;
Critic's Pick Backstage West

BOYS NEXT DOOR* by Tom Griffin at Actors Co-op

Critic's Choice Los Angeles Times
Critic's Pick Backstage West

LAST TRAIN TO NIBROC* by Arlene Hutton at Actors Co-op

Critic's Choice Los Angeles Times;
Recommended LA Weekly

THE WHITE WHORE AND THE BIT PLAY by Tom Eyan

THE INCREDIBLE INVENTION by Bruce Sweet

* Production reviews available upon request

As Producing Director of Actors Co-op (partial list)

Fools by Neil Simon

LA Weekly Recommended;
Backstage West Critic's Choice;
1 Ovation Nomination

Little Shop of Horrors by Menken/Ashman

2 Ovation Nominations

The Hasty Heart by John Patrick

1 LA Weekly nomination;
LA Weekly Recommended

Godspell by Steven Schwartz

3 LA Weekly nominations including
Musical of the Year;
LA Weekly Recommended;
Backstage West Critic's Pick

The Seagull by Anton Chekhov

4 LA Weekly nominations including
Production of the Year;
LA Weekly Pick of the Week

The Foreigner by Larry Shue

2 Ovation Nominations

Lettice & Lovage by Peter Shaffer

LA Weekly Pick of the Week

 Actors Co-op is a professional theatre company operating two theatres under Equity's 99-seat contract and the recipient of the 1997 Margaret Harford Award for Sustained Achievement in Smaller Theatre from the Los Angeles Drama Critic's Circle and the 1996 "Charlie Award" for Excellence in the Arts from the Hollywood Arts Council

Training

Bachelor of Arts, Theatre, Cum Laude

St. Cloud State University